15. These registrations are valid, subsisting, in full force and effect and have become incontestable pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1065.¹

16. The registration of the marks constitutes prima facie evidence of their validity and conclusive evidence of Coach's exclusive right to use the Coach Trademarks in connection with the goods identified therein and other commercial goods.

All registrations originally held in the name of Coach's predecessors, Sara Lee Corporation and Sammar Corporation, were assigned in full to Coach on or about October 2, 2000.

17. The registration of the marks also provides sufficient notice to Defendants of Coach's ownership and exclusive rights in the Coach Trademarks.

18. The Coach Trademarks qualify as famous marks, as that term is used in 15 U.S.C. § 1125 (c)(1).

19. The Coach Trademarks at issue in this case have been continuously used and have never been abandoned.

The Coach Trade Dress

20. Coach is the owner of a variety of unique and distinctive trade dresses consisting of a combination of one or more features, including sizes, shapes, colors, designs, fabrics, hardware, hangtags, stitching patterns and other non-functional elements comprising the overall look and feel incorporated into Coach products (the "Coach Trade Dresses").

21. Consumers immediately identify Coach as the single source of high quality products bearing the Coach Trade Dresses.

22. The Coach Trade Dresses associated with Coach products are independent of the functional aspects of Coach products.

23. Coach has employed the Coach Trade Dresses associated with its products exclusively and without interruption, and the Coach Trade Dresses have never been abandoned.

The Coach Design Elements

Copyrights

24. Many of the decorative and artistic combinations of the design elements present on Coach products are independently protected works under United States' Copyright Law. These design elements are wholly original works and fixed in various tangible products and media, thereby qualifying as copyrightable subject matter under the United States Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. Sections 101 et seq. (hereinafter referred to as the “Coach Design Elements”).

25. Amongst others, Coach has a valid copyright registered with the Copyright Office for its “Op Art” design (registration number VA0001694574).

26. At all times relevant hereto, Coach has been the sole owner and proprietor of all rights, title, and interest in and to the copyrights in the Coach Design Elements used on Coach products, and such copyrights are valid, subsisting and in full force and effect.

27. Upon information and belief, Defendants are engaged in designing, manufacturing, advertising, promoting, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale products bearing logos and source-identifying indicia and design elements that are studied imitations of the Coach Trademarks, the Coach Trade Dresses, and the Coach Design Elements (hereinafter referred to as the “Infringing Products”). Defendants’ specific conduct includes, among other things:

A. On or about January 20, 2011, Investigators for Coach entered The Hair Villa Salon located at 4808 Ramsey Street, Fayetteville, North Carolina 28311 (the “Property”), and observed on display and being offered for sale several handbags bearing Coach Marks, including amongst others, the “Heritage Logo” and “COACH OP ART & Design” Marks.

B. On or about the same date the Coach Investigators were directed by a female employee, who identified herself as “Meagan”, to a back room located on the Property. Upon entering the room, the Coach Investigators observed on display and

D. On or about the same date, Meagan informed the Coach Investigators that The Salon sells many Infringing Products and receives new shipments of Infringing Products approximately every two (2) weeks.
